

KEYNOTE OF SPEAKER

Anelí Bongers

Is a Young Talented Research Fellow in the Department of Economics and Economic History of the University of Málaga (Spain). Having received a PhD in Economics from the University of Málaga, her fields of research are mainly focused on technological change, economic growth, environmental economics, and international migration.